

We currently offer corporate memberships to those businesses who support the OACP mission “To promote excellence in law enforcement through professional development, ethical standards, technical support and communication”.

The cost of a corporate membership is $500 per year. Corporate membership in OACP provides the following benefits to your organization:

- One member representative who will receive all rights and privileges as an associate member.
- You will receive admission to the OACP quarterly (OACP/OPCTF) General Membership Meetings.
- Corporate Members will be allowed to sponsor a Chief’s luncheon (for the actual cost of the lunch) at the quarterly General Membership Meetings. Sponsorship provides you the opportunity to do a one hour uninterrupted presentation to the Chief’s during the luncheon.
- Complimentary Business Card listing in the business directory of the “Oklahoma Chief to Chief” magazine
- 25% discount on print magazine advertisements and web based banner advertising.
- 15% discount on annual training conference exhibitor space (Corporate members will receive prime booth space at conference). The next conference is held in 2009.
- 15% discount on advertising in the Oklahoma Law Enforcement Directory (phone book) publication which will be published in November 2007

If you need further information, please do not hesitate to contact our offices toll free, 888-528-6227. We hope that you will join OACP in the mission of Professionalism in Law Enforcement.
